Auckland to Coromandel Township

As you leave the Auckland city boundary the landscape changes to lush farmland. You'll cross the fertile Hauraki Plains - one of New Zealand's largest dairy producing regions. Pass the Thames Estuary - a haven for wildlife and shore birds. Arriving into the old gold mining town of Thames, there are two different routes to the east coast of the Coromandel. Either directly over the Coromandel Ranges or north to Coromandel Township along the Pohutukawa Coast (part of the Pacific Coast Highway).

Explore Coromandel Peninsula

The Coromandel Peninsula offers a captivating blend of rugged beauty, rich history, and idyllic coastal charm. Its spine, the Coromandel Ranges, boasts dramatic bush-clad mountains, a legacy of the 1850s gold rush that once swelled towns like Coromandel Township. Today, preservation is key to protecting this pristine environment.
The peninsula's diverse landscapes are striking. The west coast plunges dramatically into the Firth of Thames with steep, pohutukawa-clad cliffs. In contrast, the East Coast is a picture of serene golden sand beaches and secluded inlets, perfect for relaxation.
From exploring historic mining remnants to digging your own hot pool at Hot Water Beach or kayaking around Cathedral Cove, the Coromandel promises a unique New Zealand experience where rugged wilderness meets coastal serenity. It's a place where history resonates, and every turn reveals another breathtaking vista.

Day 5

Pottery Class with Driving Creek Railway & Potteries

Driving Creek Railway and Potteries has become a Coromandel icon. The dream of Barry Brickell was to establish a pottery workshop on his land. Using a railway he would have access to the clay on the land and the pine kiln fuel. Over the next 15 years the railway developed until in 1990 it was finally licensed to carry fare-paying passengers and ever since thousands of visitors have made the trip to Coromandel to experience this unique attraction.
Hop on the wheel for a creative 1.5-hour pottery class and learn wheel throwing from a professional potter, in a place thriving with inspiration, innovation, and rampant creativity! They supply all the clay, the wheel, and aprons to keep your clothes clean! You also get the opportunity to have your works glazed, fired and delivered with a variety of colours at an additional cost.

Kuaotunu to Rotorua

Heading down the east coast you pass through the town of Whitianga and from here you can take the small foot ferry over to Cooks Beach and Flaxmill Bay. A little further south is the famous Hot Water Beach and the holiday town of Hahei. Cathedral Cove is a popular walk and is well worth the effort to view the massive limestone formation aptly named on the golden sand beach. Tairua is also a great location and Paku Hill offers spectacular views over the natural harbour and the Pacific Ocean.
Heading south from the Coromandel Peninsula you pass through the seaside town of Whangamata. A popular location for Kiwi holidaymakers the town boasts one of the best beaches in the region. The old mining town of Waihi still has an operating open cast gold mine and you can view the workings of the Martha Mine from a vantage point signposted from the town centre. For rail enthusiasts the Goldfields Railway operates passenger trains along a scenic and historic section of track towards Waikino.
The route now takes you into the Bay of Plenty and the port town of Tauranga before you head along the scenic Pyes Pa Road to Rotorua. For Lord of the Rings fans a detour to Matamata is recommended as this is the location of Hobbiton. Arriving into Rotorua from the north you are welcomed with some great views of the lake.
